sence of many weeds, the city was in a creditable condition from the clean town standpoint. They suggested that if the city would furnish a wagon to carry off the garbage at regular intervals, it need not be a matter of great expense to the city, and would aid much in keeping the city in better condition.

This committee will visit all the towns of the state, giving them a rating according to the condition in which the committee finds them. American Fork was one of the first towns scored, as they began with the first of the alphabet.

Tarvia Road Ready For Use

County Has Completed Two Miles East of Town.

For the past week Marion Clinger, county road supervisor, has had eleven teams and eleven men, single handed, building two miles of tarvia road on the County Road running east from the city limits. The road is now complete and ready for the public's use. It is being built as an experiment, and if as successful as its promoters claim that it will be, the county will build several miles more the coming season.

The road bed is first swept free from dust with brooms made of stiff wire.
It is then covered with tarvia, a by-product of the Salt Lake Gas Plant, to the extent of one gallon to three square yards. On top of this is then placed some fine gravel to the depth of from one-half to an inch. The coarser rocks are raked off and the road is ready for use. Some of the gravel is hauled from Pleasant Grove, but most of it came from the Lehi City gravel bed. A small strip was covered with the pea gravel from the Point of the Mountain. The tarvia is put on with a force pump operating in connection with a big water tank hired from Weber county, who is also experimenting with tarvia.

The county will also sprinkle three miles with crude oil between Spring-ville and Spanish Fork.

Third Ward Mutual Dancing Party

Next Monday the Third Ward Mutual will entertain at a dancing party in the Fabernacle. The invited guests are the First, Second and Fourth Ward Mutual girls; the Bee Hive girls and their teachers; and their partners; the Boy Scouts, and scout masters. An exceptionally enjoyable time is anticipated.

An especially pressing and cordial invitation is extended to the parents to attend this dance. Fathers and mothers, come out with your boys & girls and help them enjoy this event; it will be only the more pleasant for your presence. Ice cream and cake will be served during the evening; and the music will be rendered by the popular Elite Concert Orchestra.

It is requested that Bee Hive and the Boy Scouts come in uniform; and that the Bee Hive girls who have not, as yet, their uniforms ready, should wear white middie suits the blue and brown of the Bee Hive colors showing in the tie. It is planned to have a grand march where in cas-ward will march together.

Tickets, 25c; extra lady, 10c.
Cream and cake free of charge.

ARCHBOLD HELD TO DISTRICT COURT

A complaint has been filed in Justice E. L. Jones' court at Provo against Ralph Archbold charging him with a statutory offense. He has waited preliminary examination and has been held to the district court in $500 bonds. The case was based on the same state of facts as those on which the suit for support was brought by a misguided and unfortunate American Fork girl. The time for examination in the case has not yet been fixed.

Chipman Reunion

The Chipman Reunion was held on the shores of the beautiful Utah Lake at the American Fork Lake Resort, Monday at 12 noon. Tables were laden with the bounties of the earth, located under densely covered trees that afforded splendid shade and cool quarters for eating the dainties and substantials of life. Family groups on a large scale were located here and there under the trees. About two hours was spent in eating and visiting, children greeting each other on every hand. A splendid opportunity was afforded at this time to talk over old times and renew acquaintances and to find out exact relationship. Tables were then cleared and the Chipman posterity was invited into the well ventilated, beautifully decorated, and spacious dancing pavilion. An enlarged picture or painting hung in the south end of the hall showing the "Chipman Coat of Arms," given to the King of England to the progenitors of the Chipman race for their valor and heroic deeds. In the north end hung the pictures of the noble Sire Stephen Chipman, the great grandfather of the Chipman's of Utah.
There were portraits of his sons and daughters who had passed to the Great Beyond; viz., Henry, Sarah, Martha, and their wives and husbands.
The American flag was used mostly in the decorations. W. S. Chipman, the general chairman, called the vast multitude to order. A splendid choir made up of Chipmans was hustled together in a very few moments and they sang as they had never sung before, "Utah We Love Thee" and "There is Beauty All Around When There is Love at Home." Prayer by Stephen D. Chipman, youngest son of his father. Opening remarks and speech of welcome by the chairman, W. S. Chipman. Genealogical report by Stephen L. Chipman, showing 514 literal descendants of our noble father who came to Utah in 1847. There are 13 children, 99 grand-children, 287 great grand-children and 115 great, great grand-children. There have been over 100 persons married into the family, making a grand total of over 600 direct relatives, of this number there are still living approximately 531 mostly in Utah and very prominently in American Fork. A letter was read from a relative in Canada by the name of Willis Chipman, of Toronto, wishing the Chipmans of Utah a good time at this gathering.

At this lake gathering celebrating the 110th anniversary of Stephen Chipman, there was present about 500 men, women and children. A happier and more cheerful bunch could not be found. A trio consisting of Elva and Dorothy Chipman and Blanche Crandall was most harmoniously rendered.
Reminiscences of the family were given by the oldest member present, Washburn Chipman, now 87 years old.
His speech was chuck full of wit and humor. Leland Chipman Farrer of Provo, Utah, sang a solo. After singing and benediction, the crowd was now ready for the sports that had been prepared for the occasion. Races, ball game, boating, bathing, swinging, whirling, were indulged in for two hours. By this time supper was ready and so were the people, but they seemed to have more than "five loaves and two fishes." Supper being over, dancing was indulged in on the magnificent maple floor until 11 o'clock, at which time they all returned to their homes with their hearts full of praise and thanksgiving for the splendid outing and grand reunion.

Unique Feature at Stake Union Meeting

An interesting feature of the Stake Union and Priesthood meeting last Sunday was the sample "Thursday Evening at Home" given by Mr. and Mrs. Blackhurst assisted by members from several other families. They were seated on the stand, much as the family circle would be at home.

The evening was opened by one of the young ladies playing a piano solo "Love at Home." A song by the family was given, followed by a cornet solo with piano accompaniment. Then came a vocal solo and a reading by other members and an interesting story by Mrs. Blackhurst. A letter from an absent missionary son was read and sweets were passed by the youngest son.

Intervening between the numbers was social chat, such as would naturally take place. The program was followed with keen interest, and when a vote was taken showing how many had adopted the "Thursday Home Evening" idea about twenty-five percent of the hands went up.
